

Merci Miglino

Biography

Before striking out on her own, Merci Miglino promoted ideas and people within the New York political scene for nearly 20 years. A former teacher, reporter, communications director, campaign manager, Merci now manages a successful practice as a career and business strategist and Certified Professional Coach for individuals and organizations.

Her individual clients include entrepreneurs, corporate and non-profit professionals, career-changers, students, and other practitioners. Her organizational clients include

Hewlett Packard, the US Department of Labor, Federal

Environmental Protection

Agency, NYS Health Department, NYS Department of Corrections, NYS Division of Budget, Americorps, College at St. Rose, Siena College, Adirondack Community College, Sierra College (Rocklin, CA), and PersonalShopper.com.

Merci also facilitates trainings for several local school districts, the employee assistance programs of the State University of New York at Albany, the Civil Service Employee Association, The NYS CSEA Partnership, Magellan Behavioral Health, and the Capital District Employee Assistance Program.

She has achieved a master level of coaching with over 2000 hours of experience and currently teaches certification courses for the International Coach Academy located in Sydney, Australia. She is the former Chair of the International Coach Federation's Public Relations Committee and Chapter Leader for the Albany, NY Chapter.

An inspired humorist, Merci speaks internationally and conducts a variety of workshops on stress and change management as well as her signature motivational presentation, From Doormat to Diva© Taking Center Stage in you own life, based on her book of the same name.

Merci appears regularly on the local TV and has received both